English translation:

From now on there are freebies available for you

These charts are available as pdf files and may be used for private purpose only. They may not be sold or kitted. You need Adobe Reader for opening the files.

All designs and instructions are protected by copyright law.

To order our freebies you have to create a customer account!!!

If you would like to order the freebies only, then you could choose "Freebie Country" for delivery address.

After doing that and sending your order successfully you have to do the following for getting access:

Directly after doing your order click on "Meine Bestellungen" a text link which you find slightly above your email address on the right side. Your orders will show up and then click on one of them. The least you've sent is the first in the list. You have to scroll down a little bit. You will find a button "Download now". Click and there you are! The download is valid for 24 hours for once.
